Reference is made to the Director's memorandum dated 11/26/63 describing his conversation with John McCone, Director, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), concerning the instant matter. Mr. McCone indicated that he had discussed with Agent Papich the matter of CIA's sensitive sources in Mexico City.

For your information Agent Papich was in contact with Mr. McCone on several occasions during the period 11/22-24/63. In all of these contacts, McCone was inquiring concerning the status of the Agent's contact with CIA officials who were following leads in Mexico City. He wanted to make certain that the information being received by the Agent was in line with the briefings being afforded to him by his own men. In each instance the Agent reviewed these matters and McCone was satisfied that all angles were being properly coordinated from the standpoint of his Agency.

McCone also emphasized very strongly that the information being developed by CIA resulted from the Agency's THIRD AGENCY in Mexico City. He asked that this information be fully protected since any leak could seriously jeopardize not only the position of CIA in Mexico but all agencies. The Liaison Agent assured McCone that the information received by the Bureau from CIA would be fully protected.
